Personal.

INFORMATION is wanted as to the whereabouts of Mr. PATRICK KING, who when last heard from was in the employ of the C. P. R. at Port Moody in the capacity of Bridge Carpenter. Some 18 or 20 months ago a rumor reached his friends in New York State that he, with a number of other workmen, were quarantined for small pox at Port Moody. He was formerly a resident of Brockport, Monroe County, New York. Since that time, 18 or 20 months since, his friends have received no tidings from him. Any person knowing anything of his whereabouts will relieve a widowed mother's anxiety for an absent son by communicating such information to the TIMES office, Victoria, or to R. A CARD.

ANSWER TO THE "COLONIST."

TO PARROT NOSE.—If you had been a gentleman instead of a cur, you would have paid the dollar, and twenty-five cents for the lady you brought with you. How could a cur expect a fortunate planet when trying to damage my name and ruin my business. Cowarding is too good for such people. If people were to study their planets a little more there would not be so much crime or misery. I am very much obliged to the ladies; I did not think I had so many friends. I am sorry the "Colonist" has nothing for its idle hands to do but insult a lonely woman.

ELECTRIC LIGHT ENGINE.

Another Sitting of the Special Investigating Committee.

Experts Unanimously Agree that Engine and Boiler are Defective.

Before proceeding with the investigation, Mr. Higgins asked the chairman if the Standard had been notified to send a reporter to the meetings of the committee. It was a matter personal to himself and he wished it to be set right. He had no knowledge that the Standard desired a copy of the proceedings and would have been only too glad to have furnished a copy, or a proof, if necessary. He did not think he had any right to be held responsible for the remissness of a newspaper.

The chairman replied that he had gone personally to the Standard office and requested Mr. Brown to send a reporter and Mr. Brown had commenced to "abuse," when he (the Chairman) had replied that he did not come there to be abused, having called only to acquaint him with the fact that the proceedings were open.

Mr. Higgins took occasion to say that the charge made against him was a willful lie.

THE MAYOR'S GRIEVANCE.

His Worship said he hoped the reporters would report accurately and not give a garbled account, as had been done.

The Chairman said he thought that on the whole the reporters had gave very correct reports, considering the noise that was continually kept up.

MR. THOS. GOWEN.

To the Chairman—Had seen the boiler and engine, but had not examined it closely. As far as the engine goes in its workmanship it is first rate, but did not approve of the design. I object to the cylinder totally. Have not examined it minutely, but from looking at it from the outside I would condemn the ports; they are too long and waste too much steam. The seat of the valves is too far from the cylinder. I always make my exhausts two to one and never less than one and a half of the inlet. There is a waste of steam in each stroke. I only condemn the engine for the work it has to do; it might work well in a saw mill, where a large quantity of sawdust was to be burned up. Would have adopted more heating surface in the boiler; have always found 2½ inch tubes work very well here.

To Mr. Higgins—I tendered upon the engine; my tender was $2,765.

To the Mayor—There were no plans or detail drawings submitted to me; specifications were supplied, and I was to prepare the plans. I did not tender for the shafting and pulleys, because of the shortness of time. Mr. Spratt told me they would be required in two weeks, and I could not do it in that time. It was not required for two months after. Mr. Spratt made out the specifications.

To the Chairman—It is usual to tender on work of this kind without detail drawings; I never had drawings excepting in one case.

To the Mayor—The cylinders can never be used economically to develope the power required, or so as to save fuel. I would say the boiler had not heating surface enough; it might be increased probably to 900 feet, as there is room enough in the shell. I would recommend the removal of the engine entirely and the substitution of a different class of engine; it should never have been put there. When I saw the engine first I condemned it for the work to be done.

To Mr. Higgins—The Albion Iron Works could turn out the shafting and pulley in two weeks; had the time mentioned been two months I would have tendered on it.

Mr. Spratt—I acted under the advice of the Electric Light Committee in giving two weeks as the time for construction. Messrs. Wilson Bros. put in a tender. I did not know that any tender was for any of the work.

MR. ANDREW GRAY.

To the Chairman—We were not supplied with any detailed drawings; the specifications called for detailed drawings which the tenderer would construct; we sent that to the council. There were some trifling changes made in the patterns, with Mr. Vigor's approval; after he had changed the patterns, a detailed drawing was made and submitted to Mr. Vigor, which he approved and signed as the accepted plan of the engine. I was very careful in my doing nothing without Mr. Vigor's sanction, as there was a great deal of talk outside. There was no new pattern made for the cylinder, and I do not think Mr. Vigor made any change on the old pattern used. Mr. Vigor went into the shop and gave the workmen orders without my orders.

To Mr. Higgins—It was certainly not my duty to point out to Mr. Vigor any defect that I might think existed. I was not the consulting engineer—we were only the contractors. I frequently said the boiler was too small. I simply carried out Mr. Vigor's instructions.

To His Worship—The specification called for a plain slide valve engine, and we followed it. The engine will run the machinery, but at a great expense of fuel. It never struck me there was anything wrong with the cylinder; think the engine was made for the Royal City Planing Mill.

Mr. Gowen to Mr. Gray—I would have done exactly the same, and if I had the patterns and Mr. Vigor would accept them I would put them in.

To His Worship—The engine can never be made up to the standard of the best engine; if the Council like to go to the expense I would recommend an engine similar to the Corliss.

To the Chairman—The new slide valve is now in; it seems to work well. With sixty pounds of steam it made a hundred revolutions in sixty-nine seconds, and was driving the old engine at the same time; at seventy pounds pressure it made 100 revolutions in 62 seconds. At 100 revolutions a minute the dynamos will be driven at the speed called for by the makers, providing their is no slip in the belt.

MR. J. SPRATT.

To the Chairman—I think the best thing now to be done is to introduce another slide valve with more laps, so the steam will work more expansively in the cylinder, and increase the speed of the engine to 150 revolutions, and increase the diameter of the palleys on the dynamos to correspond to the speed of the engine.

To the Chairman—I don't think it would be advisable to take the engine out.

Messrs. Gowen, Gray and Nicholles agreed with Mr. Spratt's recommendation for the improvement of the engine.

Mr. Nicholles said if it was feasible, he would also recommend to put on a separate expansion valve, which will regulate the cut off. Saw the engine today and thought it worked better than before. You will have to run the two boilers under any circumstance.

MR. A. HENDRY.

To the Chairman—I agree with Mr. Spratt's suggestions as to the improvements needed. I am satisfied that with the changes made it would be inconceivable how much better the boiler would fire; the total cost would be about $150. I still advise a condenser, and am fully persuaded that it would pay for itself in six months.

Mr. Spratt said he was not a particle sorry that the Council should be beaten. The people were too ready to pick up every stranger who came along, whether qualified or not.

The Mayor asked Mr. Gray who would be responsible for all the expenses if Mr. Vigor had lived?

Mr. Gray said the engine and boiler were built according to specifications, and the Albion Iron Works were not responsible.

Councillor Higgins said the cost of the electrical outfit was many thousand dollars—probably $8,000—in excess of the estimates.

A request was made on Mr. Bullen that the account of the Albion Iron Works should be handed in at once.

The committee then adjourned. A report will be presented at the next meeting of Council.

CITY COUNCIL.

The regular weekly meeting of the City Council was held last evening, Mayor Fell presiding, and the following members present: Councillors Robertson, Lipsett, Higgins, Styles, Humber, and Vigelius.

COMMUNICATIONS.

From Mr. C. W. B. Thomson, of the Victoria Gas Company, in reference to an excavation proposed to be made on Government street under the charter of incorporation, for laying down a gas service to the house of Chin Fook. Permission granted, the work to de done under the supervision of the Street Surveyor.

From Captain Irving, requesting the attendance of a policeman at the landing of steamers of the C. P. N. Co., to preserve order during the landing of passengers and offering to contribute a portion of the expense. Referred to Police Committee to report.

From R. T. Williams, asking for street lines and the use of a portion of street for building purposes, at the corner of Douglas and Discovery streets. Granted.

From six ratepayers, calling attention to the unwholesome condition of the drain on the south side of Chatham above Quadra. Referred to the Sanitary Committee with power to act.

From H. Gribell, asking for the removal of the obstruction from the sidewalk in front of the Heathorn block, as its presence is a loss to him in business of fully 50 per cent.

Councillor Lipsett thought it was now time that the obstruction should be removed.

Councillor Vigelius said the place in front of the obstruction was erected by order of the city. Mr. Heathorn could not remove it. The wall should be inspected and the rubbish removed.

On motion of Councillors Lipsett and Higgins the owners were instructed to remove the rubbish in front of the premises.

From fifteen taxpayers, asking that a sum be expended on Fernwood road to make it passable during the winter months. Referred to Street Committee to report.

From N. Shakespeare, President, enclosing a copy of a resolution passed by the British Columbia Agricultural Association, requesting the Council to take steps for the establishment of a public market in the city. Referred to the Police Committee.

From George Wilby, on behalf of the V. A. C. and the band of the Triumph, requesting the patronage of the Council at an exhibition to be given next Monday. Invitation accepted.

From thirteen residents of Pandora street, near the Royal Hospital, calling attention to the narrow and impassable condition, and offering to give a part of their property to make it the requisite width. Referred to Street Committee.

From Messrs. Wilson and Ofner, drawing attention to the impassable condition of Church Way, which was represented as a disgrace to the city and an injury to property owners, and offering, with Bishop Hills, to pay a bonus of $500 for the purpose of grading the street from Douglas street to the Cathedral.

Councillor Robertson thought as the petitioners were so liberal the offer should be entertained. He moved that it be referred to the Street Committee.

Councillor Humber said the cost of the work would probably be $3,000 or more. The work should be deferred until next summer.

Councillor Higgins thought the work could be done for $3,000; it should be done now.

Councillor Lipsett favored doing the work.

Councillor Robertson's motion was carried.

FORT STREET GRADING.

Two tenders for improvement of Fort street were received.

Mayor Fell—Don't open them. The matter should be reconsidered and the grade be changed, as the proposed alteration would ruin several properties on the street. The tenders should not be opened.

Councillor Lipsett said Mr. Leech had informed him that the grade would not affect any property, and we were bound to be guided by the opinion of the surveyor.

Councillor Styles and Councillor Higgins were of opinion that the proposed change would be a detriment to the street and the properties adjoining. Dr. Jones' garden would be several feet below the street.

Councillor Lipsett said private property should not be taken into consideration in street improvements. His own property on Douglas had not be injured by raising the grade, and neither would the property on Fort street.

Mayor Fell said he had a very poor opinion of any one who said that raising the street would not injure the property alongside.

Councillor Lipsett said it mattered not what the Mayor's opinion was; he was there not to express opinions but to hear the opinions of others.

Mayor Fell—I won't be dictated to by any one, and have a right to express my opinion.

Councillor Lipsett—You have no right to question the opinion of others. You are here as Mayor—I am here as a Councillor. As chairman you have no right to discuss questions.

Councillor Robertson suggested that the matter lay over.

Councillor Humber said we had a City Surveyor, and his opinions should be taken. He favored laying the matter over for one week.

A motion to that effect was carried.

A BY-LAW.

Councillor Higgins moved the first reading of a by-law to amend by-law 85 regulating sidewalks, foot paths and verandahs. Seconded and carried.

PUBLIC MARKET.

Councillor Higgins gave notice of a by-law to establish a public market, to be introduced at next meeting.

HACK BY-LAW.

On motion of Councillor Higgins, the Council went into committee of the whole on the Hack By-law.

Clause 8, compelling drivers to report to the Health officer, in the event of passengers afflicted with any infectious or malignant disease, and clause 9, prohibiting drunkenness or the use of insulting language on the part of drivers were adopted without discussion.

Clause 11 authorized the following charges: Hacks by the hour, $1.50 per hour as long as required; driving either one or two persons within the city limits, 50 cents, and for every passenger over two 25 cents each; to or from any steamer or train, 50 cents per head not including special orders; balls, parties and theatres, one person to and from, $2, two persons $2.50, three persons $3, four persons $3.50; for weddings each carriage $5; funerals to and from the cemetery $4; trunks taken from any wharf, train or house to any point within the city limits, 25 cents; trunks taken on the carriage, 25 cents each; baggage carried in the hands of the passengers free.

The 12th clause compels drivers to take passengers at the rates fixed, and clause 17 imposed a penalty of $50 or less or imprisonment for one month for infractions of any provisions of the by-law.

The stands were fixed: for hacks on Douglas street; express waggons on Yates street above Douglas; drays, Wharf street.

The by-law then passed and the committee rose.

MR. DE COSMOS' BUILDING.

On the complaint of Mr. De Cosmos, per Drake, Jackson & Helmcken, the City Surveyor reported that he did not give Mr. De Cosmos any street grade and that the present grade was still one foot below the line; also that Mr. Gabriel had built a chicken house on Beacon Hill Park. Ordered that the city barrister answer the communication of Drake, Jackson & Helmcken, and that Mr. Gabriel be instructed to remove the chicken house.

REPORTS.

The Street and Sanitary Committee presented their reports, which were adopted. See a summary elsewhere.

ELECTRIC LIGHT.

The Electric Light Committee reported in favor of laying over the application of Messrs. Turner, Beeton & Co., and the removal of the light at the corner of Fort and Langley streets to the corner of Fort and Wharf streets.

Councillor Vigelius suggested to the committee that a light be placed on Pandora street, where there was only one.

Councillor Higgins advocated the removal of the lights from the west on Yates and Government streets, and the distribution of the lamps at the intersection of streets.

Consideration of the report deferred for one week.

GAME DESTRUCTION.

Councillor Robertson moved that the attention of the local government be called to the necessity of passing a stringent law for the protection of game. He explained that his reason for submitting the motion was in consequence of having seen that a Chinaman had been prosecuted for having 800 skins illegally in his possession and had been acquitted. It was notorious that the game laws were being violated and that game was becoming very scarce. Motion adopted.

THE SEWERAGE PLANS.

Councillor Higgins said he understood the plans for the sewerage had arrived, and asked what steps were being taken to get them out of the customs.

Mayor Fell said he thought the matter would be arranged to-morrow. If there was any duty to be paid, Mr. Pickering would have to pay it.

THE ELECTRICIAN.

Councillor Humber said a new arrangement would have to be made for trimming the lamps, and suggested that the work be given out by tender. A motion was adopted to that effect.

THE PARK KEEPER.

Councillor Vigelius moved that the park keeper be sworn in as a special policeman. Carried.

The council then adjourned.

"PAD FLIERS."

TO THE EDITOR OF THE TIMES:

SIR,—I beg to differ with the agent of the Starr Kidney Pad Co. My yard and grounds were literally covered with those fliers, at which I was very much displeased, and am of the opinion they were thrown in by himself. CITIZEN.

—The agent for the Starr Kidney Pad Co.,—which by the way is reported to be an excellent remedial article—is up in arms against an item appearing in THE TIMES of last evening, anent the "fliers" which he scattered broadcast by the hundred thousand throughout the city.

NEWS BY CABLE.

FROM BRITAIN.

Cholera Ravages in Austria—Dilke Again in London—Unsettled Bulgaria—Agents Watching out for New Territory.

LONDON, Sept. 15.—Cholera is gaining ground in Austria. It is worse at Lic Village, near Agram. Of the nine hundred inhabitants of the village ninety have been stricken down; about 28 of these died almost immediately. People distrust the doctors and conceal the sick as long as possible. Doctors are frequently stoned in the streets. In one house a mother and daughter were found half naked on the bare floor writhing in the agonies of death. In another room lay the body of the father, upon which had been thrown the corpse of a son. Villagers are too much frightened to help one another.

SIR CHARLES DILKE

has returned to London. Already it is announced that he will re-enter public public life as proprietor and editor of a London daily newspaper. The Pall Mall Gazette is indignant at Sir Charles Dilke's hardihood, and publishes an article calling upon the Queen to vindicate the purity of English homes and the sanctity of the judicial oath and remove Sir Charles Dilke from the roll of the privy council.

THE THREE EMPERORS.

A despatch from Vienna to THE TIMES says that Walnokb, Austrian Minister for Foreign Affairs, has returned to Vienna from Gastein furnished with the rudiments of entente cordiale between the three Emperors on the Bulgarian question, at least so far as the immediate future is concerned. Russia, the despatch says, recognizes the European character of the Bulgarian question while laying stress upon her interests in Bulgaria.

THE ST. LEGER STAKES.

This will be the second day of the Doncaster September meeting. The race for the St. Leger Stakes were won by Ormonde, St. Mirian, second; Exmore, third. Seven horses started.

LORD CHURCHILL'S REPLY.

Lord Randolph Churchill replying to the directors of the Scotch Protestant Alliance who recently severely criticized his answer to their remonstrance against the appointment of Matthews, a Roman Catholic, to the home secretaryship, says he must decline to enter the field of polemical theology in regard to the position of Catholics in Protestant states. He adds that if the views of the alliance were pushed to their logical conclusion they would involve the repeal of all those acts of parliament removing the political disabilities of Catholics and the re-enactment of penal laws which a vast majority of the British people are anxious to forget.

COLLAPSE OF A BRIDGE.

The Albert bridge, says a Dublin despatch of the 15th inst., spanning Lagan river at Belfast, collapsed to-day and twenty persons were thrown into the river, four of whom were drowned.

THE CONTINENT.

Britain Establishing a New Coaling Station—Emperor William Indisposed.

PARIS, Sept. 15—Dispatches from Brest Litorisk say that the Russian military manœuvres which have been attended by the Czar have been concluded, the closing drill having been a grand march of all troops past the Czar.

ENGLAND IN EGYPT.

The Republique Francaise publishes a telegram from London which states that England meditates a grand Coup 'd etat and will probably proclaim Egypt a British possession. She will, however, adds, that journal, do nothing until she has a sufficient force at Alexandria.

THE GRAND KAISER INDISPOSED.

A Strasburg dispatch of the 15th says Emperor William was unable to attend the German manœuvres held here to-day. He was compelled by exhaustion to remain at home.

A SIGNIFICANT APPOINTMENT.

The Vienna Political Correspondence says General Baron Kaulbars, military attache of Russian Embassy at Vienna, who was summoned from Galicia while attending Austrian manœuvres to Brest Litovisk, Poland, by the Czar last week has been appointed Russia Diplomatic Agent at Sofia. If so the appointment must be considered as significant, as Gen. Kaulbars is admitted to be the best informed of foreigners living concerning the military affairs in Austria.

BRITAIN'S NEW COALING STATION.

A Constantinople special of the 15th says the British are establishing a coaling station at Thaso, on the northeast shore of the Island. Thaso Island is in the Ægean Sea, off Southeast Roumelia, and belongs in great part to the Khedive. The island has, however, for some time enjoyed certain autonomic privileges. Besides establishing a coaling station at the village of Thaso, the British are giving other indications of their intention to govern the whole island. Said Pasha, Turkish Minister for Foreign Affairs, telegraphed instructions to Rustem Pasha, Turkish Ambassador in England, to ask Lord Iddesleigh, the Foreign Minister, whether or not it is true that England is chartering steamers and making other provisions against contingencies, and if so, what are England's reasons for this action; if it's in a direction in which Turkey has interests.

STEAMER ACCIDENT.

NEW WESTMINSTER, Sept. 16.—The Yosemite coming into the wharf this morning from Port Hammond in charge of Mate Leach ran into the Adelaide breaking the latter so badly that she was unable to proceed to Hope to-day.

A PRISONER ESCAPES.

NEW WESTMINSTER, Sept. 16.—Ah Fun, held for stabbing a fellow Celestial and confined in the old gaol, which was used as a lockup, escaped last night by prying up a board in the floor of his cell, and scaling the prison wall.

THE ST. LEGER.

This rich stake was run for at the Doncaster September meeting yesterday and was won by Ormonde. Ormonde is a great horse and this year won the Derby. His father had accomplished the same meritorious act before him and so had his grandfather. In fact he is the representative of a long line of famous ancestors and perhaps is greater than any of them. He is a model for the rising generation, man or beast, for blood will always tell.

—A pro re nata meeting of the Presbytery of Columbia will be held at New Westminster next Monday evening.

AMERICAN.

Treatment of Chinese Female Immigrants at San Francisco—Indians Trading in Canada.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 15.—The Secretary of the Treasury states that some time ago there was transmitted to the Treasury department complaints made by Chinese men that certain Chinese females, who had arrived at San Francisco on the steamer Sac Pablo, were, on their landing, searched all over their persons by male customs officers, at the wharf, in presence of many spectators, and some of them had to take off their outer dress reluctantly, by compulsory orders. After a full examination of the facts a reply was made to the Secretary of State stating that females were searched by male customs officers in the temporary absence of female inspectors; that no personal search made, but that the females were compelled to remove from their bodies certain unworn overcoats which they wore in addition to their usual raiment, for the evident purpose of smuggling into the U. S. Furthermore the report states that although it was plain from external view that these females had on their body a large quantity of other unnecessary clothing, or other material, believed to be smuggled goods, yet the surveyor did not order their persons searched, for the reason that there was no inspectoress to perform that duty.

INDIANS TRADING IN CANADA.

The treasury department has decided that Indians living in the United States, near the Canadian frontier, are not entitled to the privilege of purchasing horses and cattle in Canada and importing them into the United States free of duty in accordance with the revised statutes or otherwise.

$15,000,000 THREE PER CENTS.

At Washington on the 15th it was reported that a call for fifteen million of 3 per cent. bonds will probably issue from the treasury this afternoon.

A REPULSIVE, HIDEOUS MASS OF HUMANITY.

A Las Vegas, New Mexico despatch of the 15th says: To-day on the train of ten coaches from the south, bringing Chiricahua and Warm Spring Apaches from the Sancarlos reservation, in Arizona to Florida there were 400 savages guarded by three corps of United States infantry. Although none of them have been on the war path since Geronimo broke loose, it is understood that they were furnishing his band with ammunition and there was no telling what moment they might break out. For these reasons the Government decided to ship them to Florida, where they could do no harm. More than half of the Indians are squaws with their children, and a more repulsive and hideous mass of humanity was never crowded in elegant sleepers before. The car doors were closely guarded by soldiers.

NORTHERN PACIFIC.

Annual Meeting of the N. P. R. R. The Old Board Re-elected.

NEW YORK, Sept. 16.—President Harris formally opened the stockholders meeting of the Northern Pacific Railroad in this city at noon to-day. The ticket for directors for the year 1886 is August Belmont, Frederick Billings, John W. Brookman, John C. Bartlett, Benj. C. Cheney, Jas. C. Fargo, John R. Hall, Robert Harris, Brayton Ives, Johnston Livingston, Thos. F. Oakes, Louis Stackpole, Chas. B. Wright. The new names on the list are John Brookman, Brayton Ives and Jas. C. Fargo, who take the places of Roswell G. Rahton and N. P. Hollowell. Brayton Ives voted on 25,000 shares and John W. Brookman on over 20,000 shares. The election resulted in a complete victory for the Harris ticket. The total number of votes cast was 673,536 out of a capital stock of 870,583 shares. Elijah Smith, President of the Oregon Transcontinental voted 188,239 shares for the old ticket and John C. Bartlett and Chas. B. Wright of Philadelphia, voted on over 150,00 shares. President Harris then read the annual report.

ELECTION OF OFFICERS.

At the board of directors meeting the following officers were elected: President, Robt. Harris; Vice-President, T. F. Oakes; Treasurer, R. L. Belknap; Secretary, Samuel Wilkinson. The new directors are Brayton Ives, Jas. C. Fargo and Jno. W. Brookman. They belong to this city, but represent Philadelphia's interests as well.

JUSTIN M'CARTHY

Delivers His Farewell Lecture on the Irish Cause of To-day.

LIVERPOOL, Sept. 15.—Justin McCarthy delivered a farewell lecture tonight on the eve of his departure for America. There was a large attendance. McCarthy had for his subject, "The Irish cause of to-day." He said that the cause of Ireland had of late made remarkable strides. Parnell had opened up an entirely new chapter in the history of the Irish struggle for legislative independence. (Cheers.) Success was within sight; it was hardly a question of years but rather a question of months. The most eloquent of English orators, the most gifted of English statesman, Mr. Gladstone, was now leader of the Home Rule movement and behind him was the great English democratic party. Only some strange, unparalleled, fatal mistake by the Irish party could prevent success and, please Heaven, they would not make such a mistake. The boast of a true Irishman, said he, is that he is a home ruler. Irishmen, he concluded, did not ask to dissolve partnership with Great Britain. They only insisted on their right of governing themselves. Irishmen were tired and sick of being the enemies of England, especially as English friends had so suddenly and nobly risen to do their duty toward Ireland. [Applause.] He said he was not going to America on a political mission. He had heard, however, educated Americans did not believe in Home Rule and he would try and find them out. He thought on his return he would be able to give a list of them in a very small compass. Indeed, he hoped to return in time to take part in the great struggle which would begin at the next session of parliament, and which would lead to the consummate success of the Irish cause. [Applause.] This was the cause of civilization and enlightenment, progress and humanity, and under God's providence it could not possibly fail to meet with success. At the close of McCarthy's speech he was loudly applauded.

—From Ottawa via Chicago comes a shocking story of the wholesale deportation of Canadian girls to the cities of the United States for the worst of purposes.

OUR PROVINCIAL EXHIBITION.

The preparations for the approaching exhibition of the British Columbia Agricultural Association to be held in this city on Thursday, Friday and Saturday, October 7th, 8th, and 9th, are now in a forward condition. The buildings and grounds of the association on Beacon Hill Park are being overhauled and fitted up for the reception of stock and the display of farm products, as well as mechanisms, the fine arts and ladies' fancy work. From the number of applications made for prize lists and entry blanks it is certain that the entries in all classes this year will be greater than hitherto. It is to be hoped every one who has an interest in the progress and development of British Columbia and her resources will make a point to make a contribution. Send along the best you have; in all probability it is better than that of your neighbor, or that exhibited by any one else. A commendable spirit of emulation now prevails throughout the province which is certain to result in much good.

From the mainland the contributions this year promise to be very large. Hitherto the great interior was debarred from participating in these annual competitions. The means for transportation this year are such as to enable exhibitors as well as visitors to come out in full force. If they do so we predict a general surprise to such croakers as assert that we have but little land in the interior fit for agricultural purposes. Grain grown there as well as stock fed on our famous bunch grass equal that produced anywhere else. From the Fraser river valley there will come exhibits that would be a credit to any country, demonstrating beyond a doubt that the delta lands are unrivalled for the growth of all classes of cereals, roots, vegetables and fruit. The dairying interests of that section will be pitted against that of the Island, a result which will be watched with much interest. The mechanisms of the Royal City factories will be displayed side by side with those of this city. The Island will contribute its quota in stock, farm products and such other exhibits as go to make a provincial exhibition a success. From the city our merchants, traders and manufacturers will make handsome contributions, while the ladies, who have been as busy as bees for months past on fancy work will make an exceedingly creditable display. The new features in this year's exhibition are numerous, principally amongst which is the band tournament and the speeding of horses. It will be no fault of the managers of the exhibition if it is not a success this year, for they have been indefatigable in their labors.

The forthcoming show is specially our own, one in which Victoria should take a ten-fold interest. Holding of the exhibition here means much for our merchants, traders, hotel keepers, transportation companies, hackmen and others. The Canadian Pacific Railway Company and the Canadian Pacific Navigation Company have agreed to convey passengers, stock and goods to and from the exhibition at a single fare. This is liberal indeed and should induce many to visit the city. The Island Railway it is believed will be in operation by that date and for the first time many will have an opportunity to indulge in a ride over the entire length of the line. A reduced rate of fare will do doubt be given by the President of the company.

THE IRISH IN AMERICA.

Having ciphered out from our census for 1880 that of the total foreign-born population of the United States the Irish are now only 27.7 per cent. to 29.4 per cent. Germans, the London Times draws the conclusion that United States politicians were very foolish to pay so much heed to "a diminishing political force." Thereupon "An American" wrote to the editor that he was "sorry to say that the prospect of emancipation from Irish rule in America is not a lively one at present." The Irish, he went on to explain, are, almost wholly, gathered in cities and towns where they are able to exert great political power because of their disposition to vote together. "A contest struggle," he says, "is going on in nearly all our Northern cities between the American taxpayers and the Irish tax-raters,' as they are usually called, and it is a struggle for existence on the part of the American element." In substance, this American asks the English people to believe that the chief evils of our political life, and more especially the corruption of of municipal administration, are due to the Irish and their innate wickedness. The case, according to him, is the more deplorable because these bad Irishmen are nearly all Roman Catholics, and so rule their Church that "almost the entire Catholic sect" vote the Democratic ticket. It is true, observes the New York Sun, that the Irish make themselves felt in our politics more than the Germans, but that is because they are keener politicans and take more interest in politics. The Germans are only occasionally aroused to great political activity, but the Irish love politics always. The Irish, too, are earnest partizans, while the Germans are apt to dissipate their strength by kicking the party traces, after the manner of Mr. CARL SCHURZ. Therefore the Irish make themselves felt politically to an extent greater than their proportionate numbers; and this political power they get because their political ability and their attention to politics entitle them to it. They are assiduous in performing the highest duty of citizenship, and they get their reward. It used to be the fashion for many people, perhaps for most people not of Irish blood, to talk after the manner of this American correspondent of the London Times. Everything bad in our politics and our society they laid at the doors of the Irish. But how is it now? Whom did the people of New York elect as a reform Mayor? WILLIAM R. GRACE, an Irishman and a Roman Catholic. Who has done more than any previous Mayor for the reform of the municipal administration of Boston, so that he commands the respect and praises of all parties? HUGH O'BRIEN, an Irishman and a Roman Catholic. The old prejudice against the Irish expressed by the correspondent of the Times is ceasing to exist among intelligent Americans. In the Legislature, on the bench, and in every department of public activity men of Irish blood are conspicuous for ability and usefulness. If Irishmen are generally disposed to vote the Democratic ticket, so much the better for them. In that way they they can best serve the interests of the republic, whose strength and perpetuity depend upon the maintenance of Democratic principles.

SOUND ADVICE.

Mr. C. C. COLBY, M. P., a few evenings since delivered a lecture at Dixville, P. Q., which in substance was "Canadian" throughout, and well calculated to make his hearers firmer believers in and greater admirers of their own country. Amongst other topics touched upon, Mr. COLBY said:

"Our political condition is well enough. We need not bother our heads at present about Annexation, Independence, Imperial Federation, radical changes in our own governmental system, or any other political conundrums. A man who is always studying his own anatomy and physiology, brooding over real or imaginary internal troubles, and dosing himself, commits slow suicide. It is so with nations. Let us have faith in the future, our country and ourselves; that faith which in material, as well as spiritual concerns, is the substance of things hoped for, and the evidence of things not seen, and we shall continue to press forward in the path of progress, and of moral, social and material improvement."

This, on the whole, is sound advice. The country calls for political improvement in certain directions, but nothing revolutionary. Canada needs an elective Senate, and the popular branch elected by manhood suffrage; when these reasonable changes will have been made, nothing more that our Parliament can give us will be needed for some time. One change, however, Mr. COLBY has overlooked. The mother country must concede to Canada the right to negotiate commercial treaties for ourselves. Mr. COLBY has shewn the immense strides the country has made in manufacturing and has pictured our immense agricultural and lumbering and fishing resources. But we cannot limit ourselves to producing only enough for home consumption and our present outside markets are too limited. We must therefore use the means in our possession to open foreign markets for our manufactured and raw products, and no one can do this for us but ourselves.

THE prayer and petition of 500,000 Irish ladies for Home Rule looks like a word of supererogation. If there be any husband whom a wife ought to be able to rule, it is an Irish husband.

FOR the week ending Aug. 28 the traffic receipts of the Grand Trunk Railway were: Passengers, $141,242; freight, $224,708; total, $365,950, or $60,528 more than for the same week of 1885.

PHYSICAL DISTURBANCES.

The present year bids fair to become memorable as one of elemental disturbances. The earthquake which lately wrought so much of disaster and death in Charleston is but the last of a series of convulsions of various kinds which have occurred in divers places. It would seem as if the elements of air, water and earth had each in turn broken loose momentarily from the control of the laws which ordinarily hold them in place, and given the world a taste of their destructive energies. The violent eruption of Mount Ætna, the strange outburst in New Zealand, the cyclone which wrought such havoc in the west, the deluges in one place downpouring in an almost solid flood from a bursting cloud, in another rushing upwards in a mighty torrent from some subterranean reservoir tapped by an artesian well, the typhoon in the Gulf of Mexico, the fall in various places of meteoric stones—these are but some of a series of strange and destructive phenomena which in a less scientific age would have afforded abundant food for superstition terror. And now to crown the whole comes this succession of great earthquake waves utterly destroying several towns in Greece, making itself faintly perceptible in Canada, imparting to many of the Northern American cities a gentle oscillation, and working fearful ruin in Charleston and vicinity. If a historical record by MALLETT, which is quoted by some of our exchanges, is reliable, it would seem that this last and most dreadful form of physical disturbance is increasing in frequency of occurrence in this continent. The statement is that in Mexico and Central America there were six earthquakes in the sixteenth century, seven in the seventeenth, twenty-four in the eighteenth and thirty in the first half of the nineteenth; and that in the United States and Canada there were ten in the seventeenth, eighty-eight in the eighteenth and fifty-one in the first half of the nineteenth. It is, however, very probable that the greater attention paid to physical phenomena in these latter days, and the more careful records made, will go far at least to account for the apparent increase in number. In a less observant age many a slight vibration or oscillation might pass almost unnoticed. Sir WILLIAM DAWSON, in his address this year before the British Association, made some observations which, as a contemporary observes, seem to have been almost prophetic of the recent earthquake. He notes indications which lead him to the belief that a new settlement of the bed of the Atlantic, accompanied with foldings of crust especially on the western side," may soon occur. These "foldings of the crust" sound very harmless and learned in a scientific paper. But when we reflect that the western side spoken of happens to be our side, and that but a slight folding of the crust might be sufficient to cause the brick and stone structures in our cities and towns to topple down upon the heads of the swarming pigmies that inhabit them, as they have done in Charleston, it becomes more difficult to contemplate such possible changes in the purely scientific spirit.

ONE OF US TWO.

The day will dawn when one of us shall hearken
In vain to hear a voice that has grown dumb;
And morns will fade, noons pale and shadows darken,
While sad eyes watch for feet that never come.

One of us two must some time face existence
Alone with memories that but sharpen pain,
And these sweet days shall shine back in the distance
Like dreams of summer dawns in nights of rain.

One of us two, with tortured heart half broken,
Shall read long-treasured letters thro' salt tears;
Shall kiss with anguished lips each cherished token
That speaks of these love-crowned, delicious years.

One of us two shall find all light, all beauty,
All joy on earth, a tale for ever done;
Shall know henceforth that life means only duty—
O God! O God! have pity on that one!

—Ella Wheeler Wilcox.

He Thought of "Dem Hogs."

"Just previous to the war," said a Mississippi planter the other day, "I was out in the field giving an old and favorite slave of mine some instructions about a change of fence, when I heard the hiss of a snake and jumped aside just in time to avoid the fangs of a cotton mouth. I was for the time badly rattled, while the old man seized a club and killed the snake. Several months passed, and the incident had been forgotten, when I got into trouble and was challenged to fight a duel. I accepted and named the next morning at 8 o'clock. How the news got to the old slave I never could understand and he would never tell, but in some way he got an inkling that I was to fight. In the afternoon, as I sat alone on the veranda, he came shuffling up, pulled off his hat, and when I gave him a nod of encouragement he approached and said:

"'Mar's James, dey dun say you am gwine to fight wid Mar's —— to-morrow.'

"'Hush! What nonsense!'

"'I ain't gwine to say one word to nobody, Mar's James, but de old man——,'

"'What?' I asked as he hesitated.

"'Member dat cotton mouf down by de swamp, Mar's James! 'Member how—how you dun turned pale an' trembled!'

"'Perhaps I did.'

"'Wall, Mar's James, if you am gwine to fout wid Mar's —— jis' doant fink of snakes 'tall when you am standin' up to shoot. Put yer mind right on dem eighteen hogs which rooted under de fence an' got out into de brush de odder day, an' de Lawd will help ye drap him.'

"The duel came off, and Mar's —— was 'drapped' with a bullet in his shoulder, and the old slave didn't quit shouting and praying for a week."—Detroit Free Press.

Joaquin Miller's Bit of Experience.

My ambition has always been to build up a little home and make a moderate living by raising something in a garden, such as fruit, flowers, and so on, and also practising law in a quiet way. In fact, I think I never had such joy as when last year at New Orleans I picked up a western magazine with a picture of the house which I built and the trees which I planted in Canyon City, Grant county, Ore., when judge there. Those trees are now a fortune to the owner. I am sure I never had much idea of my verses, and I prefer prose work. But above either prose or verse I think I have financial ability that ought to have carried me far to the front. For a man who can at the age of 22 take a county, with its paper low down in the twenties, and in less than four years have it at par, ought not to be despised, even if he does write rhymes. It was something of this confidence in myself, and a desire to stop writing, also, with the purpose of writing a sketch for an English magazine, and all this backed by the fact that my books had sent millions of English money over the Pacific railroad, which made its great manager my professed friend, that led me into Wall street, and to the wrecking of the few thousands I had saved. This Wall street battle threw me back to writing again, and harder. I went to Washington, bought a piece of ground, built a cabin—the only kind of house I could afford, and yet it suited me exactly—and paid for it piecemeal—by days' work, I may almost say. And now, soon, this year, God willing, I shall stop writing, and in a small way take up the law again. For a man who writes constantly can not think much. And a man who does not think much ought not to have much to say.—Lippincott's Magazine.

Soldiers in the French Capital.

"Liberty, Equality, Fraternity," are cut and stencilled and painted above the doors of churches, wine shops, museums, libraries, theatres and schools, yet it does not seem like liberty to post your letters within ten feet of a bayonet, to enter an art gallery between sentries and to find a squad of infantry at the opera sternly watching your exit as if you had designs on the the building. It perhaps gives confidence to a people to know that it has 500,000 or more of soldiers ready to fight its battles, but what is the use of having soldiers at every corner to prove that they are alive! In the United States, now, we are satisfied to know that we have an army without ever seeing it. Yet the soldier adds to the brilliancy of the Parisian crowd and is probably liked because he is red and blue and has brass buttons. He is inside the theatre as well as outside; you will find him gazing at the pictures and the marbles in the Louvre, stirring up the animals in the Jardin des Plantes, lounging through the parks, taking his evening sip at a sidewalk table on the Boulevard, attending mass on Sunday morning and going down the river with his girl in the afternoon. He seems to have leisure, and more money than his pay, and after awhile he comes to figure in your mind as an emblem of the amusements of peace rather than the savagery of war. But he may be out for business on one of these fine days, for his defeat by Goths and Vandals of the lands beyond the Rhine has made a lasting soreness in him and he hankers for revenge.—Paris Cor. Brooklyn Eagle.

What Nellie Thought About It.

Nellie celebrated her fifth birthday last week by a visit to the circus, where she was greatly enchanted with all she saw. When the female bareback riders came into the ring she screamed outright with delight. "Oh, pa," she exclaimed, clapping her hands, "just look at the angels!"—Somerville Journal.

Disappointment of Secretary Chase.

Speaking of Secretary Chase reminds me of a singular incident. One day, while a clerk in his department, I was in his room on some errand and found him laboring under strong excitement. He was talking with his bosom friend, Senator S. C. Pomeroy, of Kansas, about the coming Republican convention (of 1864) and the certainty of Lincoln's renomination. "And it will be too late!" he exclaimed, bitterly, "for the war will be over and some soldier will be elected, sure! The soldiers are to have the honors of the next ten years. I ought to have been a soldier, Pomeroy! I felt it in my veins always, and I wanted to be a soldier—wanted to go to West Point, but they made me a lawyer, and here I am—unavailable!" I tried to back out when I saw that he was in an unusual mood, but the senator at once took his leave. I asked Mr. Pomeroy recently about this strange interview. "Yes," he said, "Mr. Chase was a great man. He overtopped his fellows, and he knew it. I saw him in that bitter frame of mind more than once."—Washington Post.

CHEAP CIGARS AND CIGARETTES.

Are They Made from Discarded Cigar Ends?—A Dealer Talks.

The gathering of cigar stubs gives employment to a large number of Italian women and children. As a reporter wended his way homeward early one morning recently, he saw an Italian lad with a bag strapped upon his shoulders walking in the gutters of the streets in the vicinity of the city hall. The boy was collecting burned cigar ends. At dawn the public thoroughfares are thronged with industrious little laborers, who before the sun rises clean the streets of all discarded cigar stubs. Until an inquiry was made at a local cigar store the reporter was at a loss to know what became of the cigar stubs gathered. The dealer in tobacco said:

"You would be surprised to know the amount of money Italians make by gathering cigar stubs. I do not think I put the figures high when I state that no less than 50,000 cigars are smoked in Brooklyn daily. The number consumed may be more or less, but nevertheless the fact remains that nine out of ten men smoke. During the day a larger part of the smoking is done out of doors, and the stubs of the cigars, when wholly or partly consumed, are thrown into the gutter. In the vicinity of the city hall, where large crowds of men gather at all times during the day, the number of cigar stubs found is scarcely credible.

"The cigar stubs are utilised in many ways. After being gathered the butts, by which name cigar ends are sometimes known, are sorted and graded, and the dark and light shades of tobacco placed in separate heaps. The tobacco in the stubs is then pulled out and thoroughly washed. The washing process is done to eradicate all ashes and burned tobacco. After the tobacco has been dried and graded again it is ready for sale. Cigar stubs are sometimes made up into a cheap quality of five-cent cigars, or oftener sold to cigarette manufacturers, who mix the stubs with other tobacco."—Brooklyn Eagle.

The New Generation in Virginia.

A great deal of nonsense has been written about these "first families." They are usually represented as thriftless, vain and scornful to all outside the magic circle of their society. They lack, it is true, much of the goaheaditiveness of the northern man, but it must be remembered that most of those yet living were brought up under conditions that paralyze energy. With large estates and hundreds of slaves they had no motive for exertion, and now that the war has swept away all their wealth they must change their very natures before they can become the pushing business men who build up communities. The new generation is growing up quite different, and it is more than likely that when they come to the fore the Virginia farmer will no longer let his acres lie useless or half cultivated. The fact is that the landholders in Stafford county are yet in a dazed state over the result of the war. They can hardly realize the change, or if they have they think it is too late in life to start out afresh.—Virginia Cor. Philadelphia Times.

Alexander H. Stephens' Old Home.

Alexander H. Stephens' old home, "Liberty Hall," has been purchased by the Stephens Monument association, but a debt of $10,000 still remains on it, which the committee hopes to pay by soliciting $1 subscriptions.—Chicago Herald.

CONVINCING TESTIMONY FOR THE STARR KIDNEY PAD.

Peter Francis, sworn before Judge Galt, Toronto, James Bethune, Q. C., for plaintiff. I live in Brooklyn, Ont. I am a miller. I had occasion to use the Starr Kidney Pad two years ago. I used it for trouble in my kidneys. The doctors told me that I had disease of the kidneys and that very bad. I had been doctoring about three years; I was not a bit the better for doctoring. I was gradually growing worse; the urine growing red, and my health wearing away. I had to give up my occupation; I saw the kidney pad advertised in the papers, and I bought a small two dollar pad, and found it very beneficial; I got well in health, and I got better than I had been for years; nine months after that I bought a three dollar pad, and that completely cured me up. I wore the first one six weeks; and the second one I wore six weeks. I now consider my myself a well man, with no trouble at all. "Question: "You attribute that to the kidney pad?" Answer—"I have no other way to attribute it; I am here a living monument to-day, and I do not think I should have been here but for the Kidney Pad." Cross-examination:—"I commenced to feel ill first when I was living at Brooklyn, working as a miller; I had a mill of my own; it would be about five years ago I first got sick; it is two years gone now since I got the first Kidney Pad; I was thrown off my work through my sickness." Question—"And the sickness was connected with your kidneys?" Answer—"Yes; the doctors said that, and I was treating for it. Dr. Wright and Dr. Clarke of Oshawa treated me. No person was treating me at the time that I bought the first pad. On the 12th of August two years gone I hired in Peterborough; I gave up my situation there in two months because I was not able to work; and I went home and bought the pad. I soon after that got an interest again in my own mill, and I came back from Peterborough to Brooklyn; I got employment in my own old mill, and I worked there. I was the principal miller, with the assistance of my brothers; I had an interest in the mill. I wore the pad, and was able to do my work with the pad on when I was nearly well. After about the first week, I began to mend, I was not taking any medicine—not a bit. The sickness came on me in spells—sometimes I was a little better, and sometimes a little worse; I was not able to do my work; for about two years I could not do anything in Brooklyn; then I got a trifle better, I was doctoring with Dr. Clarke of Oshawa, and he helped me some. I have never been a drinking man. The cause of my trouble first was the getting of my back sprained while carrying a bag of grain, I slipped and fell with the bag of grain above me, and gave myself a great wrench. I do not feel the pain now. After I used the kidney pad, I don't know as I ever felt better in my life." Q.—"You got rid of this trouble?" A.—"Yes." Re-examination—"I had worn the pad about a week when I began to feel better."

DR. VANMONCISCAR,
THE WELL-KNOWN
SPECIALIST,
Proprietor & Consulting Physician of the Only Private Dispensary on the Pacific Coast, now permanently located at 132, 134, Third Street, Portland, Or.

DR. VANMONCISCAR has made the treatment of Private Diseases of Men a special study and practice for many years. Over 4000 cases treated yearly. Recent cases of private diseases cured in a short time. Ulcers, Rumors and Blotches on Face or Body cured without giving Mercury or other Poisons. Mercury is the curse of the human race. Your children will suffer from its effects. Avoid it as you would any deadly Drug, and use no more. These diseases are being cured at this Dispensary without Mercury.

is a graduate of a regular Medical College, is well known over the United States and Canada by and it is a well known fact that for years he has confined himself to the study and treatment of Sexual and Chronic Diseases, thus giving him advantages few possess. Dr. Vanmonciscar addresses himself particularly to those who have already tried various physicians and remedies from whom they have received no benefits, and who, in fact, have done them more harm than good. Medicine, like all other sciences, is progressive, and every year shows proof of its advances. By a combination of remedies of great curative power, Dr. Vanmonciscar has so arranged his treatment that it will afford not only immediate relief, but permanent cures.

YOUNG MEN

who are suffering from the effects of youthful indiscretions showing some of the following symptoms: Nervous and Physical Debility, Impotency (incapacity) Lost Manhood, Abuses of the system, Exhausted Vitality, Confusion of Ideas, Dull and Loss of Brilliancy to the Eye, Aversion to Society, Despondency, Pimples on the Face, Loss of Energy, and Frequency of Urinating. You may be in the first stages, but remember you are fast approaching the last. Do not let false pride and sham modesty deter you from attending to your ailments. Many a bright and naturally gifted young man, endowed with genius, has permitted his case to run on and on, until remorse racked his intellect, and finally death claimed its victim. Remember that "Procrastination is the thief of time." So lay aside your pride, and consult one who thoroughly understands your ailment, and who will know your case, and find permanent relief for an ailment that has made day a drudgery and night hideous. Thousands upon thousands of men in good standing in the social world, of prominence in the world are to-day suffering from the fruits of their doings, the seeds of which were sown during moments of thoughtlessness. Young man turn and gaze upon thy companion, or seek the mirror for proof to substantiate this fact. Oh! could he control the arm of Fate, or had he his life to live again, then I could not appeal to you more sincerely. Let your mind wander back to the much cherished counsels of a loving father, and remember what you are to-day. Though you may for the present fill your station in society, the time is as inevitable as fate when your brilliancy will, like a flash, depart, leaving you a stranded wreck—desolate, forgotten and lost; so embrace the opportunity and enjoy life and happiness longer. If you claim to be a man, act your part manly. Do not console yourself with the thought that Nature will help itself, for in doing so you not only fan the flame, but wreck Nature and yourself. Remember, "Large oaks from little acorns grow;" "Little ills germinate fatal diseases."

Middle-aged Men,

married or single, who are prematurely old as a result of excesses or youthful follies, and who are troubled by too frequent evacuation of the bladder, often accompanied by a slight smarting or burning sensation, and finding a deposit of rosy sediment in the urine, and sometimes small particles of albumen will appear, or the color will first be of a thin or milkish hue, and again changing to a dark or torpid appearance, causing nervous debility and loss of Vitality. Remember, this is the second stage of Seminal Weakness. In all such cases a perfect cure is guaranteed, and a radical restoration of the Genito-Urinary Organs. All interviews and letters are sacredly confidential. Medicines packed so as not to excite curiosity, and sent by express. If full description of case is given, but one personal interview in all cases preferred. Patients treated by case or monthly. Call early and avoid crowding. Office hours: 9 A. M. to 8 P. M.; Sundays, 10 A. M. to 2 P. M.

CITY AND PROVINCE.

—Mr. Chapperon, an old resident of Yale, was found dead in his store on Monday.

—Money saved by having your plans made by FISHER, the ARCHITECT

—Those in search of a quiet and pleasant home should give Roccabella a trial.

—Mr. S. J. Pitts will administer the estate of the deceased F. Chapperon.

—A number of horses, oxen, wagons and carts will shortly be sold at auction by J. P. Davies & Co.

—Fidelity Hams and Bacon are the best in the market, at NEUFELDER & ROSS.

—The Guardian has heard that the New Westminster branch will not be operated this winter.

—Cacao Chouao, Benedictine, Chartreuse, Parfait Amour, veritable liqueurs at Neufelder &Ross'.

Mr. Stewart has located himself at Donald, where he will take charge of the sleeping car service to Port Moody.

—The first consignment of British Columbia salmon that arrived at Morden, Man., sold freely at 20 cents per pound.

—Ice cream in quantities to suit, delivred in any part of the city by Young Bros., New England Bakery.

—Regret was expressed to-day by all on learning that the moonlight excursion was postponed. However a concert at the Victoria will do just as well.

—Ex-Gov. Wm. A. Newell was nominated for delegate to Congress by the people's party in convention at Tacoma last Saturday.

—The Calgary Herald announces a sale at Meikle's corrall, in that town, of 20 horses and mares, the property of Mr. John Tait of British Columbia.

—DENTISTRY:—W. J. Quinlan, D. D. S., has removed to the rooms formerly occupied by Dr. West, over Denny's store, Victoria Block.

—A robbery occured at the Globe Saloon, Vancouver, on Sunday night, when a gentleman was relieved of a gold watch worth $150 and $210 in cash.

—The Electric and Blue Mottled Soaps turned out by Pendray & Co. are absolutely pure—will wash the finest fabrics without damaging them or burning the hands. Try them.

—Mrs. E. J. Miller receives pupils in oil painting, drawing, crayon and decorative work. Room 19, Bank of British Columbia building, Government St.

—Says the Winnipeg Manitoban: W. Dufour, who was one of the "boom" auctioneers, and who went to Vancouver some time ago, writes that he intends returning to Winnipeg shortly.

—President Rosener, of the Postal Telegraph Service, assures the San Francisco journals that the enterprise will be pushed on with all speed from New Westminster to the Bay City.

—Henry Cunningham got drunk yesterday and was arrested. He put up $5 bail, and as he did not appear this morning at the police court the money was estreated.

—F. C. Innes & Co., Real Estate Brokers, and Financial Agents, Vancouver, B. C., attend promptly to all enquiries about the terminal city; Free Reading Room for use of strangers arriving in Vancouver.

—An interesting event will be celebrated, probably to-night, the principals being two residents of Maple Bay. Although two graves will be made, the occurrence will be a peculiarly happy one to all concerned. THE TIMES extends its best wishes.

—The Bishop's Close Ladies' Working Party will hold a sale of work at the Cathedral school to-morrow between the hours of 11 and 5. A splendid lot of useful and fancy articles will be offered for sale. Admission free.

—A California cow is being made much of because she swallowed a stick twenty inches long. Sticks in short-horns are not unknown in this latitude, but the most genial of saloonists in Victoria decline to sell one twenty inches long at popular prices.

—Minnie Hauk Concert & Opera Co. Sept. 27th and 28th. Seats selling rapidly. Parties having reserved their seats will please call and get their tickets at Waitt's book store. No money taken at the door.

J. F. PICKERING, Local manager.

—The thing can't be done—and there is no use of looking for, or expecting to get as good a line of Laundry Soaps, TOILET SOAPS, Shaving Soap, as PENDRAY & Co. have on hand and are turning out at their factory on Humboldt street.

—Toronto Mail: A British Columbia paper says five cent pieces are in circulation in the Pacific province, and it hopes that smaller change will never be introduced. It may be observed that if there were smaller silver change down here church collections would probably fall off considerably.

—It is stated that her parents are watching a young and very comely woman who is expected to leave the parental roof with her own true love, contrary to the wishes of the stern parents, who are relentless in their hostility to the alliance. True love but laughs at bolts and locks. The parties reside in the northeastern part of the city, and are highly respectable.

—The Port Moody wharf, which is now being re-constructed under the superintendence of Mr. Marcus Smith, C. E., when completed will be the most substantial structure of its kind on the Pacific coast. It will be of iron and impervious to the ravages of the toredo or any other insect and will last for many years. The work is being completed by the Federal Government.

—The Starr Kidney Pad Co.'s agent correctly supposes that the item in yesterday's TIMES refers to his fliers, but pleads that he did not know there was any by-law against covering the streets and sidewalks with little bits of paper. Ignorance of law is no justification for offenders of any kind. When merchants are forbidden to sweep a few small pieces of paper on to the streets, traveling vendors of patent cure-all appliances must not be permitted to carpet the streets and pavements; no matter how beautiful they look. We suggest to the chief of police that it is not too late to prosecute; the agent is still in the city.

FIRE! FIRE!

We will open temporarily in part of Mr. Alex. Cowan's Hardware store, next door to the Colonist office, where our subscribers will be able to get their periodicals etc.

YOUNG MEN'S CHRISTIAN ASSOCIATION.

A fair audience attended the Young Men's Christian Association meeting last evening, to listen to Mr. C. S. Mason, State Secretary, Y. M. C. S., of California. The speaker said that the object of the Y. M. C. A. was a definite work for young men, by young men: to benefit them physically, socially, educationally and spiritually; that there were over 3,000 Associations, almost encircling the globe; with a membership of over 200,000; owing property worth over $5,000,000. The gymnasium and reading room were for young men. Tramps, loungers or old men who monopolize the room to the exclusion of young men were not wanted. The speaker said that all the privileges of the association were offered to all—Christian or non-Christian. Any young men of good moral character, and the religious views of the association, representing the evangelical denominations need not be accepted in order to enjoy its advantages. The local association with its 150 members, its new rooms and proposed bath rooms, gymnasium, &c., were duly praised, as well as the progressive work of the general secretary, Jas. J. Daly. A rising vote of thanks was extended to Mr. Mason by the delighted audience.

OBITUARY.

Another old resident, in the person of Mr. Richard Baker, departed hence this morning at the patriarchal age of three score years and ten. Deceased was father of Mr. M. Baker, of Yates street, and for many years and was at present a member of the firm R. Baker & Son. He has several other sons who are well known throughout the province. He was an Irishman by birth and came to British Columbia from London, Ont. Deceased was highly respected and his departure, although naturally expected at his age, was somewhat sudden, and will be deeply deplored by numerous descendants, as well as by all who were acquainted with him. He was for many years a prominent grain dealer in London, of which city he was a pioneer. He emigrated to California in 1863 and to this province in 1864. The funeral will be held on Sunday next.

CHINAMEN AND BEAR.

Two Chinamen, employed in chopping wood on the farm of S. Jones, Saanich, met an old she bear and two cubs in the woods. Instead of running away, as Chinamen would be expected to do, one of them attacked bruin with the axe and succeeded in getting in one or two blows before she climbed a tree. Fire was started below, but the bear only shifted its quarters to a branch somewhat better protected. One of the Chinamen then stood guard, while the other went for a gun; but as no shot or ball could be procured, several small round stones were rammed down on the powder, and with these the bear, which proved to be a large one, was brought to the ground dead. The cubs were also captured. After such an exploit who will say that Chinamen are not brave.

CORRECTION.

In yesterday's TIMES a slight error occurred in reference to the freight rates charges from this city to Donald, and from Winnipeg to the same point. The figures quoted for first and second-class freights were correct; those named for third, fourth and fifth class were incorrect and should read that for these classes from Victoria to Donald they are less than from Winnipeg by 22c per 100 pounds on third; 15c on fourth, and 63c on fifth respectively.

FALL AND WINTER IMPORTATIONS.

Messrs. A. Gregg & Son, the artist tailors, Douglas street, have received today their first shipment this season of fall and winter trimmings, chinchilla, and nap beavers, Scotch and English suitings, choice trouserings, &c. Messrs. Gregg & Son have imported a new staff of skilled workmen from the east, and will make these goods up in first-class style. Before placing your orders for fall and winter suits and overcoats don't fail to inspect their stock.

CHINESE ACTING.

Ah Wing and See Doo, the two Chinamen who undertook to scalp Ah Sing, were again remanded, or rather one of them was, awaiting the capture of the other. The parties are all connected with the Chinese theatres, one of them—the fellow that did the carving—being a "star" in heavy tragedy. Mr. Fell, who appears for the defence, is prepared to show that the episode was only a part of the play—a realistic scene in the great drama at the time, and not, as maliciously asserted, a deliberate attempt to wound. Mr. Wilson appears for the prosecution.

STREET FIGHTING.

At 4:30 this morning special officer Stewart found two men rolling on the sidewalk on Johnson street, fighting as well as their position and condition would allow them. He took one of them, Rudolph von Raymot, to the gaol, and the prisoner denied the charge in the police court, claiming that he was only defending himself against the other fellow. The case was remanded for one day.

FREE BOARD.

John Cowan and John Williams tried to beat the Arcade restaurant out of their grub and will board for a month free at the expense of the province because they were found out. Williams said they left the restaurant, because they were dissatisfied with the menu, a plea which the court could not entertain.

HOUSE BURNED.

The house of Wm. Badcock, in Mountain District, was burned on Monday last. The fire was communicated from the bush. As no one was present at the time all the contents were consumed.

EXCURSION POSTPONED.

In consequence of an unforeseen circumstance, the moonlight excursion on the Yosemite, advertised for this (Thursday) evening, is unavoidably postponed.

—The New Westminster licensing board refused a license to Messrs. Insley & Owens. A petition signed by 100 was presented in favor of, and signed by 300 against granting the license. The latter were presented by Rev. C. Watson and Mrs. Cunningham.

—City Surveyor Leech, since he was given charge of the streets and the works in progress, has his hands more than full, and finds it necessary to employ clerical assistance in his office. Mr. Thos. Mathews was appointed as his assistant at last night's meeting of council.

—Parties wishing to invest in Port Moody property will have an opportunity of so doing by calling on Captain W. R. Clarke, at his salesroom, Yates street, where prices, conditions and all other information can be obtained. The property offered is on the Clarke estate, and is considered to be the most valuable in the port.

—North Pacific's consignees: A Ofner, A W Huson, A H Gordwin, B C St & P Co, Brown Bros, C E Redfern, Carne & Munsie, C J Major, G > Jacques, Hastings S M Co, H Saunders, H B Co, J Da-onville & Co, J P --reau, J Wilson, M W Waitt & Co, Matthews, R & Tye, N Portman, R Maynard, R Osborne, R Carr, T Earle, Victoria E I Co, W B Luson, W Eckert, W Forrest, T W Tyle.

GOSNELL'S SUGAR CURED HAMS

are now ready at his store, corner Cormorant and Douglas streets.

THE CALGARY OUTRAGES.

Curious Developments in Connection with the Stage Robbery and Scott's Murder.

A Calgary correspondent to the Toronto Mail of the 8th inst., says:

During the past week the police and detectives have been quietly working up not very strong clues to the mail robbery and murder. The deeper the case is gone into the stronger becomes the conviction that the same parties committed both crimes.

A SINGULAR INCIDENT

has become known. About ten days previous to the crimes a number of men were cutting hay in a bottom not far from where the buckboard was cached. One of the horses strayed in the direction of the cache, and one of the men followed it and unexpectedly hit upon a party in the underbrush. Lafferty and Young, two of the most strongly suspected, and who have disappeared since the murder, were of the party. But what is still more strange, the murdered man, Scott, was also there. They asked the man who was in search of his horse what he wanted, and being told they walked further into the underbrush. Nothing was thought of the circumstance at the time, but viewed in the light of future events it is, to say the least of it, particularly significant. It gives color to the suspicion entertained that Scott was really one of the gang who conceived and carried out the stage robbery. His death is pretty certain to have been the result of some disagreement between the parties.

TWO OR THREE SURMISES

are made. Scott was more than suspected of being in the whisky business with these men, but those who knew him believe that he would not be likely to be a party to anything in the nature of a stage robbery. One thing is now pretty certain, however, and that is that Scott was in companionship with Lafferty and Young up to a very short time before his murder, so that if these men were the robbers they were in all probability the murderers as well, and that they were the robbers there is very strong evidence.

CONCERT.

A grand array of talent and a splendid selection of music is put forward for tonight's concert at the Victoria by Professor Sorge and his pupils. The personnel of the performers comprises what is termed Victoria's elite. There are sixteen numbers to be rendered, all of the choicest character. If well interpreted the whole affair must be a genuine treat.
